

REMARKS

In the Examiner's Final Rejection, he noted syntax and antecedent basis errors within claims 5 and 17-19. The undersigned has therefore sought to correct these errors. While reviewing the claims in detail, the undersigned realized that the printed version originally submitted to the U.S.P.T.O. contained a word processor to printer discrepancy which truncated several lines of text. The result was that the conjunction "and" was omitted from claims 10, 13, 14, 15, and 16. The omission has been corrected. The amendments were not previously presented because the undersigned had not previously perceived the errors, for which the undersigned apologizes.

The Applicant therefore respectfully requests that the Examiner enter the amendments.

Respectfully submitted this 29th day of JULY, 2005.
